203 Alternative Dispute Resolution 12.05-06.2017 Fort Worth, TX

Course 203 - Alternative Dispute Resolution

Course Description:

This course provides the right of way professional with information regarding alternate methods to resolve negotiation disputes. Participants will learn how to identify different alternative dispute resolution (ADR) methods and how to recognize each method's strengths and weaknesses. Participants will also learn how to bust through deadlock, how to save money when negotiations are not successful, and how to avoid getting involved in court proceedings.

Course Level:

Intermediate

Topics:

- The "Getting to Yes" dispute resolution principles
- How to identify sources for, and examples of objective criteria to resolve disputes
- The relationship between ADR and eminent domain/expropriation
- How to employ processes and procedures to succeed at ADR
- How to bust through deadlock
- How to minimize financial loss when negotiation is not successful

Course Tuition Includes:

- Participant Manual

Recommended Materials:

- Successful Communication and Negotiation Textbook (separate purchase; available through IRWA's Publication Store)
- Getting to Yes – Negotiating Agreement Without Giving In Textbook, by Roger Fisher and William Ury, Penguin Books (separate purchase; available through amazon.com, or other retail outlets)

Who Should Take This Course:

This course is intended for right of way professionals who want a better understanding of ways to reach settlement when the negotiation process is not successful.
